Executive Committee,
[San Francisco.]
J. H. TOWNSEND,
H. M. COLLINS,
H. W. GIBBS,
W. H. NEWBY.

[Oroville.]
W. H. HALL.

[Michigan Bluff.]
J. J. UNDERWOOD.

[Columbia.]
H. T. SMITH.

[Mariposa.]
THOS. DUFF.

Publishing Committee

J. B. SANDERSON,
J. T. TOWNSEND,
W. H. NEWBY,

G. W. GORDON,
J. J. MOORE.

Copy in the Harvard University Library.

REFERENCE NOTES

1. Cincinnatus (Lucius or Titus Quinctius Cincinnatus) was a fifth century B.C. Roman patriot. On two occasions (458 and 439 B.C.), while serving as dictator, he saved Rome from the threat of invading armies.
2. Scipio Africanus Major (234?-183 B.C.) was a Roman general and conqueror of Hannibal in the Punic Wars.